

Chapter 8

This chapter deals with Deaf Proverbs on pages 72 to 81.

Part I

Change each of the following “wrong” Deaf proverbs to make them correct.

Sign softly and carry a big stick on your belt.

---

Show me your hand and I will show your teacher your school.

---

There are two sides to every communication - your side and my side.

---

A new sign today is worse than two full hands tomorrow.

---

Never rearm yourself during an argument.

---

Signs speak quieter than words.

---

Point only where you can put your finger.

---

Hands-off experience is your best teacher.

---

A cracked floor always pounds false.

---

Many hands make heavy work out of interpreting.
